Student Art Show 2019

Guidelines for the Terrebonne Fine Arts Guild Student Art Show

The annual TFAG Children's Art Show will be held from March 11-17, 2019. The following Art Guild rules and suggestions are intended to help conduct a successful show for your individual school as well as the show at Downtown Art Gallery 630.

Lister below are the guidelines for the 2018 Children's Art Show:

1. Parents are responsible for registering children's art at the Downtown Guild on February 26th and 27th, between Noon and 6:00 PM.

(Alternatively,) a designated teacher can register students art with teacher registration form should they want to have students participate as an art project.

2. Entry to the Student Art Show is Free.

3. Only one entry per student. All students (home school or traditional) are eligible for the Student Show.

4. Size Limits: Paintings should be no larger than 22"x14" for grades 1st-7th or 22" x 30" for grades 8th- 12th including frame; no glass; no hobby craft or paint by number, no photos or computer image; original art work only, no copyrighted characters/work or workshop/camp (group) work; artwork must not have been exhibited in any previous TFAG show.

5. Properly mount artwork - all work done on paper must be firmly attached to a mat board, corrugated cardboard or foam-core-board, can be laminated or shrink wrapped; no framed work will be accepted from elementary, middle or junior high student; no glass will be accepted on any work.

6. If Teacher delivers Children's artwork, please place in a portfolio labeled with the school's name, the contact's name, and contact's phone number to the Guild; February 26th & 27th, noon to 6:00pm

7. Complete registration form provided and duplicate for your records. Tags are provided for proper identification of child's work. Teacher's registration packet should be numbered to match with the registration form numbers.

8. ID tags secure -the Child's name, grade, and school (or Home School) should be clearly written on the enclosed I.D. Tags and placed on the front of the entry. This same information should be hand written on the back in case tag is lost. Tags are provided and should match with the numbers on the registration form.

9. Present the completed registration form to be checked in by one of the TFAG committee members.

10. Exhibit will be open for the public March 11, 2019- March 17, 2019, at Terrebonne Parish Library Systems, 151 Library Drive, in Houma.

11. Children's artwork must be exhibited for full length of exhibition.

12. Artwork Pick-Up will start after the Reception on March 17th at 4:00pm, or at Downtown Gallery 630 during the following week.

13. Kindergarten and Pre-K work will not be accepted at this time.
